It's All About Arts

Promoting local arts for 20 years!

For over 20 years, It's All About Arts, co-founded by Glenn and Janice Williams has created an environment where artists could have multiple platforms to share their creative endeavors. Whether as performing artists, visual artists or word artists, all have been encouraged to share via television, web sites, open studios, exhibits and special events.

Now in our 21st year, we work to find more and more ways to explore and share the bounty of art in the Greater Boston area. This magazine is a new way to deliver and share local art news. Glenn Williams now has a FM radio show and podcast on arts, education, and rock & roll. Through our nonprofit, Roslindale Arts Alliance, we have started a youth scholarship program and in April will be awarding our first vouchers for art classes.

We encourage you to embrace and support local arts. Read this publication. Share this publication. Advertise in this publication (20% of profits will go to the Youth Scholarship fund). Watch our television show. Follow us on social media. Listen to the radio show and podcast.

The mission of our magazine is to provide another valuable resource to the voice and presence of the creative energy within the local arts scene in the Greater Boston Community.
